We made a sincere effort to get pictures of all members of the new city council, but failed. We will not publish any unless we publish all, for we like them all alike, such as that is.

Grenada Horse Show is scheduled for June 4th. It will be held at Proby field at the Fair Grounds. The public spirited citizens of Grenada who put up the money to install the powerful flood lights now see the wisdom of their investment, as this field can be used for night events of that kind, for the soon-to-be soft ball games among our own folks, and also for such games between some of our teams and teams of other towns. The new president of the Fair Association, Mr. Honeycutt, thru his committee is in full charge of the property, subject to rights that this committee delegates to other pub-Be-spirited bodies, seeking betterment of Grenada as an amusement center.

Nylon hosiery made right here in Grenada went on sale in Grenada stores on the 15th. This type of hosiery is produced in a limited group of selected factories in the United States. Grenada Industries, Inc. included.

The side with the last dollar to spend will win the present war, as has been true in all wars.

Our old friend, Donald Sharp, has been getting after the delinquent privilege taxpayers in the free state and in Bolivar County.

Thanks to the Highway Department for its splendid publication, liberally illustrated, which it called the Pictorial Review, and congratulations to Hederman Brothers upon an exceptionally fine job of printing.

Roll-em Wall is still in the Tower Building, and, so far as we are concerned, he can stay there. He seems to be doing a pretty good job.

John Bradley and John McEachin, ex-aldermen, say they have reserved the front seat on the east side of the city hall as Heckler's Bench. They have invited Frank Gerard to sit with them.

The "oldest" man in the city government is Cowles Horton, the attorney. When Cowles tells us anything, we can bet on it, when he tells us anything.

Things look bad for the Allies, but the last dollar, of which England has many, will win the war.

After writing and after printing our editorial about the "Hands, the Best Bet of Man", in which we pointed out the lack of manual training of our school children, we received a plan from the Board of Trustees whereby, in the future, students may work half time and attend school part time. What we said in the editorial was true. May we congratulate the authors of this plan upon their plan, which is a most worthy and a most sensible one.

The City still has a Smith as a cow-catcher, but a new Smith, T. M. Smith. Hurrah for all Smiths.

It looks natural to see Lester Parham back on the grader, maintaining the state highways. Abe Linker turned him out into the dry pasture five or six years ago. Lowry let him into the clover patch.

Had a letter from Albert Lake Sunday. Albert has no political ambitions further than sitting in the state senate. He made a good one. Watch out, Albert, Paul will be down there speaking this summer.

If you want to go to Hot Springs, see Mr. Jim Shaw. He has a good car, and needs somebody to drive and share expenses. He wants someone who needs to take the baths. This is a chance for some one to get a trip to Hot Springs at no great expense.

See where our old friend, Major T. B. Birdsong, has opened a detective agency. When he catches up with his pay work, we suggest he try to find out where sugar on the tongue went.

The mail order boys are not doing so well since our own merchants have started advertising what THEY have. have.

Several of the boys from the free state were in the city Saturday, but they acted mighty nice and sober while here.

Garden Club Annual Flower Show Was Well Attended And Well Appreciated

The spacious reception hall of Grenada Community House was transformed into a scene of brilliant floral beauty on Thursday of last week when Grenada Garden Club staged its annual Flower Show.

The silhouetting of beautiful flowers against the background of natural greenery interspersed by shafts of sunshine from the many windows, created a most charming springtime picture. The show was attended by a fashionable gathering of Grenadians and out of town guests.

The judges awarded the following prizes. The final color listing indicates the ribbon awarded.

NEW MARSHAL

WILLARD ODOM

Gulf Refining Co. Sends In Men As Oil Activity Grows

A corps of Gulf Refining Co. engineers has established headquarters in the large one story brick building belonging to Mr. W. B. Hoffa on Depot Street.

This outfit, representing one of oildom's most stable companies, evidently thinks that there is "something" in this vicinity. It is understood that geologic and other tests in the western part of the county and in the vicinity of Phillip will engross the attention of the bunch at the present time, tho thorough investigation of oil potentialities of this immediate section may be made afterwards.

Grenada, already crowded, is being filled to capacity with this ingress, comprising as it does about a dozen families and ten single men, all connected with the Gulf outfit.

Mr. James F. Fair is in charge of the office, and has the following gentlemen with him: Messrs. C. F. James, W. P. McCutchon, W. V. Guiday, J. B. Bowman, F. G. Eppright, M. C. Vessels, G. C. Davis, H. H. Rabel, C. W. Wade, J. M. Kilborn, E. I. Head, W. J. Barnum, Jr. (all these have their families), L. A. Patton, W. J. Bardio, N. A. Melaner, William Mints, J. E. Magee, Jr. and F. M. Ward.

The Grenada County Weekly welcomes these good people to Grenada and bespeaks for them the hospitality that Grenada is famous for.

It is perhaps timely to remind those who do have quarters for rent that these fellows are not millionaires just because they work for Mellon, but are hard-working, reasonably paid young men.

Contract Let for 12-Room Addition to Hospital

City Lumber Company, one of Grenada's successful lumber dealers and building contractors, has been awarded the contract for a twelve room addition to the Grenada Hospital in South Grenada.

The addition will make the form of a twelve-room extension to the south of the present front of the building. At present the building is in the form of an L. When completed it will be in the form of a T.

Patients seeking treatment, both medical and surgical in this hospital, have been so numerous as to cause an almost constant state of overcrowding, and this addition, it is hoped, will relieve the situation, at least for the present. The contract price was not revealed.

R. W. Sharp, Grenada's New Mayor

Appointment of Committees And Minor Business Were Meeting's Only Actions

Following the settlement of a few minor matters that had come up since the regular May meeting of the city council, on Wednesday, May 15, 1940, the new mayor, the new marshal and three new aldermen were sworn in by the retiring mayor, E. C. Neely, and the retiring members withdrew, leaving the fate of the City of Grenada in the hands of the new administration, whereupon the new administration filled the appointive offices within its jurisdiction.

The new Mayor is Hon. Robert W. Sharp, long time and honored citizen of Grenada. The retiring mayor was Hon. E. C. Neelly. The new City Marshall is Willard Odom, a native of this city. The retiring marshal was J. D. Snip Crenshaw, finishing out twelve years of service. Retiring aldermen were Messrs. John Bradley, John McEachin and Spivey Kent. The new aldermen are Messrs. Harry Burkley, Clarence Burt and Claud Perry. The hold-over aldermen are Messrs. Jim Moss, Jim Horn and Whyte Whitaker. Mrs. W. Y. West, having no opposition in the election, continues as City Recorder.

Before regular business was taken up, Mayor Sharp made several recommendations which will be acted upon at the regular June meeting, among which were: that the police officers wear uniforms; that a purchasing committee be appointed; and that two meetings, one a private one on the first Monday, and another, open to the public, on the second Monday, be held each month.

The following committe appointments were made by the Mayor: Community House Committee, Messrs. Harry Burkley and Whyte Whitaker; Water and Light Committee, Messrs. Harry Burkley and Whyte Whitaker; Finance Committee, Messrs. J. D. Moss and Clarence Burt; Street Committee, Messrs. J. B. Horn and C. A. Perry; Grievance Committee, Messrs. Claud Perry, Jim Horn and Clarence Burt; Mayor protem, Whyte Whitaker.

The following appointive offices were filled by the board: Policemen Dave Dogan, Durrow Horn, J. B. Williams, Sr., and J. T. Ray; Superintendent of Water Plant, F. A. Kincaid until the June meeting when recommendations will be received from the Water and Light Committee; Street Commissioner, J. M. Talbert; Poundkeeper, T. M. Smith; Assistant City Recorder, Miss Katherine Prewer; Attorney for the Board, Hon. Cowles Horton; City Health Officer, Dr. R. A. Clanton; Custodian of Community House, Mrs. Lelia Pearson; A. M. Juchheim, Fire Chief.

The new board announced that all donations heretofore regularly received from the city treasury would be discontinued after June 1st, that the City Recorder notify recipients of these donations of this action with a view of permitting recipients to seek to reestablish their right to receive these donations at the regular June meeting if they saw fit to do so.

The board also ordered that Turner Bailey, former employee of the water department, be put back to work, after several months "vacation", on May 16th, 1940.

Upon relinquishing the reins of the city, the retiring mayor made a little talk, thanking the people for honors conferred upon him, thanking the men with whom he served for their cooperation, and offering to the new administration his best wishes, as well as offering it any assistance within his power to give.

Thus ends another chapter in the City of Grenada, and thus begins a new chapter.

GRENADA IRIS CLUB ORGANIZED

At the recent "Spring Flower Show", despite the severe weather conditions, the unusual display of fine iris was outstanding and a joy to the real iris lovers.

As a result, sixteen of these iris lovers met in the home of Mrs. Bryan Revell Tuesday afternoon and perfected "The Grenada Iris Club."

The main idea of this organization was that if they, together with the other clubs could make Grenada a Pilgrimage City, this Iris Club would endeavor to make our citizenship "Iris Conscious" as part of the pilgrimage.

An open invitation is given all "Iris Lovers" who will consent to join and work toward that end. It is not impossible to make Grenada a "Pilgrimage City."

We understand other clubs have desired it, and are making some few plans, so let's band together and make a real start.

Phone the secretary your interest and opinion and let's co-operate and put over "An Iris Trail" to Grenada, The City Beautiful.

The officers elected are as follows: President, Mrs. J. K. Avent; first vice president, Mrs. Tom Meek; second vice president, Mrs. Henry Ray; secretary, Mrs. Bryan Revell; treasurer, Mrs. Jay Gore.

Grenada, Miss., May 2, 1940.

To Your Excellency,
Governor Paul B. Johnson,

We feel that this conviction is a miscarriage of justice and that Dudley Greenlee is entitled to a pardon because of a grave doubt of his guilt; and we respectfully ask your Excellency to grant him a full and complete pardon.

Respectfully submitted,

BAND NEWS

The band reported a "classy" time while in Jackson. It was said that Brinker Thrower was even discovered in room 522 playing — cards; while Lynn Rose, Brannon Anderson and S. B. Cowan were seen snooping around the 11th floor about the twelfth hour. It was also discovered that room 527, which was occupied by D. M. Taylor, Bubber York, Wormack Smith, Tinsley and Brinker Thrower, had a call from the desk to be a little quieter, and to quit flirting with the girls across the way.

Also seen Thursday night at the marching were Anne Odom and Bobby Weir, Betty Edwards and Emmett Barrentine, Louise Avent and Brinker Thrower, Tinsley with some beautiful dame from Drew, Dot Talbert with a taxi driver (and she wasn't on the back seat). We just got a glance of Camilla as she went around the corner, but we think she was with William Saddler of Senatobia.

We are proud of the band and the honors it received. The Grenada High will be looking forward to contest another year—especially the Capitol Street parade where the boys say you see all the beautiful girls.

Doak Harts, visiting at Tie Plant, has thrilled two freshmen girl hearts. Go slow, Doak, they are easily broken. Especially Estelle's and Tiny's.

Ask Jay Gore and Johnny what's on top of that fire tower at Gore Springs. Maybe that "Young Geeslin" from Junior High knows too.

My! All of these people who have recently started driving are really getting popular.

We understand that Ruth Townes went to see a friend the other day and ate more than her part. Ruthie, hasn't your mother taught you better than that?

CARNATION'S DAY
(Written for English II)

"Car-na-shun!" yelled Michael, as he jerked his blisered finger from the steaming pie, which had just been taken from the stove by his good, ole faithful black mammy.

"Lawd, ha mercy! If it aint one thing, its bound to be another. Just let me git into a little peace and dat debelish chile'll start hollerin'. I hopes yo mammy'll tear you up like a new groun'." Having tiedup Michael's finger securely, Mammy said in a much lower tone, "Po' chile, Mammy done fixed it fo' you now."

"Carnation, I don't know what you can cook for dinner," whined the dependent Mrs. Bane. "Just what ever you cook will suit me. I've felt sorta weak for the last month."

At these words, Carnation seized the vegetable basket and entered the garden. "Aint nothin' wrong wit' dat woman but P. O. D. laziness. If I wuz to die, I don't know what in de worl' dese fokes would do", said Mammy to herself as she pulled a tomato and put it into the basket.

Carnation cooked dinner, set the table, and called dinner. Having found that Mr. Bane had not arrived from work, she sat down to "catch her breath".

"Ca-na-shun" cried Michael.

The unshapely figure squeezed thru the door and ran to his aid. The little boy had cut his toe on the shovel with which he was digging bait to go fishing. At the sight of blood, he went nearly into histeries. Carnation comforted Michael, who, after he had eaten his dinner, seized his cap and fishing equipment and started on his way to the small creek located behind Carnation's hut.

Having washed dishes and finished her day's work, the negro woman padded down the dusty road to the place she called home. Just as she turned the curve, she met her two black angels, Abraham and Narcissus. Carnation had forbidden them to leave the cabin without her permission; therefore, right then and there, she turned the children over her blue checked apron and gave them a licking. They were accustomed to at least two or three a day, so weren't in the least upset.

Having received permission to go down to the creek where Michael was engaged in fishing, Narcissus and Abraham arrived in time to help him rebait his hook with the last of the worms. Casting his hook into the water, Mike ordered Abraham to go dig more bait. Abraham returned to the creek just in time to see Michael go head over heels into the water, while Narcissus held her hands skyward.

"Mammy! mammy!" yelled Abraham running toward his mother as fast as his legs could carry him.

Mammy ran almost as fast as Abraham did, buf she arrived to see that Michael was already out of the shallow water. Now it was Carnation's time to talk.

"Now aint you a pretty sight. I'm sho' gwine tell yo' mammy 'bout this, Abraham, bof' you an' Narcissus git in dat house. Trouble is all I see."

Carnation's husband having staggered in from one of the "Juck stores", a small, usual supper of bread and milk was eaten.

Finally, time for bed approached. The prayers having been said, the children went to sleep. Then mammy spoke: "This is a good ole worl'. We all has troubles, but dat's natchel. Bless dese little niggers, I loves 'em better'n anything in dis worl'. Dey gets sweeter every day. But dey jest worries me to death, sometime."

Then in a louder tone, "Jest listen to dat nigger husband o' mine snoring. Sleepin' dat whiskey off. I dares him to come staggering in home agin. Here I is trying to mek a livin' an' he drinkin' it all up. Well, I guess he does the bes' he can."

With two small black heads on her arm, mammy fell asleep.

JUNIOR MACDOWELL MEETS

The Junior MacDowell Club met at the home of Marguerite Stanley on last Wednesday, April 30 at 7:30. In answer to the roll call each member gave a fact about some great composer: Miss Donaldson gave some facts about opera; and Louise Avent gave a report on El Travodore. Margaret Chapman, accampanied by Miss Donaldson, sang a light operetta. Miss Donaldson told fortunes by a game.

Delicious refreshments were served by Marguerite and Ann Odom. It was decided that the next and last meeting was to be held in the home of Frances Kincaid.

G. H. S. DIRT

Francis Hill was looking very very dreamy at Frances Davis. And do you know, he got a very neat, nice smile in return.

Edgar T. had better watch out, because he will have Benton K. hot on him about winking at Mary Lib in English.

Ruth T. still blushes when you speak of J. M.

Jackie tried her best to have one or two Ole Miss boys down for our Sub-Deb dance. But the Den's wouldn't cooperate.

I wonder if Bennie Moore still has B.M. & L.Y. on his books, arms, legs, etc.?

Ernestine McNulty's hobby is running the wheels of her 37 in front of the H. Mill.

The Junior Billy S. is rocking the Junior High, Eighth Grade, little Jean G.

Mary Lib still doesn't wear her coat, although she admitted she was cold walking home by herself the other night.

Marguerite and Jack still live on and on.

Lill York is the Lone Wolf, but she says that she'd wake up.

Ernestine McNulty is still hanging on, although she looks off in space when you speak his name. She says it is Spring Fever. (What do you think?)

Ernestine has slackened her pace. It seems that she's satisfied with the Seniors. We have our own ideas.

Lynn seems to dote on 7th grade girls. Especially one who thinks Bryan Baker is everything in the world.

Things will probably begin to buzz for Margaret Cannon now that she's learned to drive. She has her eyes on two or three already.

It seems that Billy prefers those long, lanky men from Pea idge.

Wonder who Turnip is sporting now, since Wormack has taken Billy Guy over?

Girls, you are in for some competition when Betty Ann is thoroughly reduced.

Whose class ring is Bennie Moore wearing?

Wonder why Fred Hodges is so anxious for the Methodist Sunday School party? Could the maiden be B. F. E.?

The Horton-Keeton romance is more serious than we thought. Roger's ring is missing from her finger.

W. A. seemed not to know any way except that by the high school Tuesday afternoon. By the way, Lucy was at the banquet.

Ask Betty Edwards why she'd like to get an excuse to leave class either the first or last period to go to the study hall. She certainly keeps up with them.

Romance on the rocks: Ruth Townes and Johnny Mitchell. Don't worry, Ruth, love will find a way.

Margeurite Stanley certainly did a fine job of "I Love You Truly" in Latin at the Roman banquet Tuesday afternoon. Too bad Jack wasn't there to hear it—even if he couldn't understand the words, I think he'd get the right idea.

Speaking of the Roman banquet, ask Mary Libber Horton and Lill York how their feet felt after serving and washing the nobles. Edgar managed to get some shoes, but the other two slaves were less fortunate.

Even though Maude Adams has lived in Grenada awhile, she seems to have left her heart in El Paso, Texas for Fred L.

We understand that Mildred Moss may have some competition with Tinsley if she doesn't watch out.

The perfect freshman couple seems to be Ruth Townes and E. C. Litten.

It seems that S. Y. has made quite a hit with Martha Jane. Janie, these Youngs will get you!

Has anyone noticed Thelma Jane with F. W. Romeo? Did we get the name right?

Watch out, Hazel, you better hang on.

SOME OF US NEED A LAXATIVE MEDICINE IN THE SPRING

Grandma went to the woods in the Springtime and procured roots and herbs to make a Spring Tonic for the whole family. May'e you need a Spring Tone-up too.

Colds of winter, fly foods, lack of exercise often leave one's system in a run-down condition. Possibly a touch of Malaria left over from last fall or a temporary constipated condition due to lack of green foods in your winter diet, has added to your distress.

If you have no organic trouble, you no doubt, like thousands of other Southerners, will be benefited by taking Nash's C. & L. Tonic and Laxative. Nash's contains two good Laxative Ingredients—Mayapple and Phenolphthalein. It also contains Quinidine and Cinchonine to combat the type of Malarly most prevalent in our Southland.

Mr. Nash, the drug manufacturer, says he does not want one penny of your money if Nash's C. & L. does not satisfy you. He says "Try it for one week, and if you are not satisfied our druggist is authorized to refund your money. Call for Nash's C. & L. Price 50c.

Housing, the Great Need of Grenada

Being in a peculiar position, due to inquiries to this newspaper and constant inquiries made to the wife, who is in the rental business, we unhesitatingly say that more housing is the greatest need of Grenada.

Today, ten families whose breadwinners are employed by a major oil company, seek places to stay in Grenada. These families, temporary residents at best, would not justify a housing spree, but these ten families are only the vanguard of more to come, and the rear guard of others who are here and need more adequate housing.

Today, there is constant talk and gossip of the division headquarters staff of the I.C. Railroad moving to Grenada from Water Valley. This move has not been officially confirmed, even if the presumption is great.

Today, many people would move here IF they had some place to stay. Located in the geographic center of the northern half of the state, Grenada is rapidly becoming, as geography intended it to be, the Crossroads of North Mississippi. Grenada's more rapid advance toward its destiny is slowed down for one reason, and one reason only: That people who want to come here have no place to stay should they come.

Abandon Crop Restriction

We have always thought that, in a world almost filled with hungry and half-clad people, for this country, blessed with fertile soil and abundant rainfall, and designed by God Almighty as one of the chief granaries of the world, it was little short of criminal for the government to encourage the restriction of production of food and fabric. Wenever have seen more incongruous pictures that those presented by ragged people destroying cotton. Think of that picture, which all with eyes saw hundreds of times."

Millions of civilians of Europe have been driven from their homes and farms. Millions of men, now in uniform, no longer can produce food and fabrics. These people must be fed and clothed, or, as ghastly alternatives, starve or freeze when Winter comes. This lack of food and this raggedness are not confined to Europe and Asia. In YOUR neighborhood, wheverer you live, there are undernourished, ill-clad people. It is a hideous paradox that hungry and ragged people exist in a country where restriction of production of food and fabric is encouraged, yea payed for, by the government.

We sincerely add our voice to that of our fellow-editor in praying that, if the government pay the farmers, it should pay them from henceforth to produce, not to restrict production.

Abundant food supplies, heretofore treated by our government as a curse, may be the means of saving Civilization itself before the snow flies again.

The Hands, the Best Bet of a Man

After all is said and done, the man or woman who can perform skillful work with the hands occupies the safest place in the world.

Many of Grenada's boys and girls are about to be graduated from high school. What can they do with their hands? What did our expensive school system teach them to do with their hands, the members that God Almighty intended man to use for his own preservation.

Can one of these graduates find a lower case "e" in a type case? Can one of them mark a one by twelve with a square and then saw it off along the line marked? Can one of them mark off a rafter on a two by four? Can one of them solder a joint? Can one of them insulate properly an electric wire splice? Can one use a common level? Can one of them sharpen a plow point, shoe a mule, or put in a broken wagon spoke? Can one of them properly divide up a remnant bale of cotton between two half-hands, the renter and the land owner?

Can one of them set a lathe, use a common file, hone a razor or repair a broken singletree? Does one of them know anything about wiping joints, sharpening hoes or welding broken pieces? Can one of them do anything well?

The greatest indictment of our school system is that, so far as the school itself is concerned, the answer to every one of the above questions is "No".

Post Office Situation

Veterans' preference is a principle written into the laws of the United States.

As a further reward for services rendered, the Congress stipulated that veterans would have preference in positions with the federal government.

This preference for the soldier was somewhat of an inducement to volunteed 21 years ago. Nothing was too good for the fellow who was risking his life for his country.

We have another terrible war in the offing that even the weight of the administration may not prevent our becoming embroiled in.

Likely it will be but a short time in the future when again "nothing will be too good for OUR brave boys", hurrah, hurrah, bravo, brave laddies!

What will these young men, potential soldiers of possibly the next few months, think of veterans' preference when they see that all three of the men who are eligible for the local postoffice are ex-soldiers and supposed-to-be beneficiaries of veterans' preference, and NOT ONE of them is receiving any more consideration than a tramp gets when he flags No. 4?

These potential volunteers are bound to think not that "nothing is too good for our brave boys", but that "nothing is good enough for our brave boys."

Plant Food Crops

Perilous times are ahead.

The invasion of the low countries by the German legions, with the disruption of industries in that area, has resulted in the temporary loss of some of our best cotton customers. Prices of cotton have broken severely, and, with the advance of terror further into the territory, will break more.

Perilous times are ahead.

Food prices are advancing. Food and ammunition are the indispensible requisites for the armies. Modern armies, no less than Napolean's armies, must travel on their bellies. Civilian populations, transplanted from their homes and farms, must be fed.

Perilous times are ahead.

Grenada county people are faced with two things: first, cheap cotton, and, second, high food prices. The obvious things, therefore, to do are to plant less cotton and more food crops. The time may come before the end of the year when, if you have not produced your own food and kept it, you will not have food.

Perilous times are ahead.

There is plenty of time to plant some more corn. There is plenty of time to set out more sweet potato slips. Sorghum is a substitute for sugar. There is ample time to have successive plantings of sorghum. A small patch of peas should be planted every week. Successive plantings of staple garden crops should be made. Redoubling of home canning should be the order of the day. Conserve the supply of fruits on your shelves, for the fruit crop in this section is very, very short.

Perilous times are ahead.

Plant some more forage crops for your workstock, cattle and hogs. Break up the land now lying idle and plant peas, soy beans, lespedeza or other forage crops. Let no acre of yours lay idle, producing sedge grass and sweet-gum sprouts. Plant forage crops until your last acre is in production.

Perilous times are ahead. We folks in Grenada county have time to take out some insurance against the things that MAY come before the end of the year.

Perilous times are ahead.

The War

The unreliability of the tinctured and censored news that comes from the ever-changing battlegrounds of Europe is too apparent to warrant a country newspaper in reviewing the reports.

Suffice to say it is clearly evident that Hitler is making a supreme gamble in seeking to conquer the low countries so that he can establish jumping-off places for an invasion of England. If he wins, England for the first time in nearly one thousand years will tremble beneath the tread of marching enemies; if he loses in this, a supreme effort of coordinated air, land and sea forces, the war will again become one of waiting. And in a waiting war, Germany will lose. Time has always favored the Allies. With command of the sea lanes and with access to the store houses of the world, the Allies could starve Germany, eating its own fat.

Before the situation in this country becomes so tense that it will be treason to say it, let us say again, with reference to this war, that right is not all on one side. Right never is the exclusive characteristic of any one side, of any one cause or of any one country. Right usualy is just about half way between the two conflicting views; just as truth is usually half way between the version of the plaintiff and the version of the defendant.

Eating Crow

Inasmuch as this editor will have to eat a bait of either Bilbo crow or White crow before long, he is soliciting from fellow editors, chefs, epicures and gormands, choice recipes for preparing crow as an edible product.

It is quite apparent to us, as it has been for a long time, that Hugh White and Bilbo will be the mud-slingers of 1940 in the senatorial race. We have said so much about each of them that a fishing excursion on election day seems more appropriate than anything else.

We, lacking the vocabulary of Bilbo and Johnson, never did say as much about Hugh as Johnson said of Bilbo and as Bilbo said of Johnson; yet those two worthies kissed and made up. We never did say as much of Bilbo as Conner and Harrison said of each other, or as much as White and Conner said of each other; yet all three of those worthies got together. With these sweet reconciliations in mind, we can not abandon hope that there is a possibly of us making up with either Hugh or Bilbo.

Anyway, to be prepared, we want recipes for crow.

Payday Is At Hand

Payday for the political promisers is at hand, not only in the executive offices in Jackson, but in the offices of every county and district leader.

Payday was postponed from election until the first of the year, then until the legislature adjourned. Payday is at hand.

Far be it from us to say anything about the arithmetic of the situation, for arithtmetic always has a way of taking care of itself. We are sitting back, doing more or less grinning, and watching the pay off from the sidelines.

We would like to see everyone of those who were promised something, get something, but we know such cannot be.

Payday, payday, grand and glorious old payday!

Nothing to Cry About

Within the past four or five years, Grenada County has climbed out of debt to the extent of over a quarter million dollars.

While some of us were "viewing with alarm", we should have been "pointing with pride".

While Grenada County was getting out of debt, the State of Mississippi was going further and further into debt.

While Grenada County was getting out of debt, the United States almost reached the legally-established ceiling, $45,000,000,00.

Grenada County has nothing to cry about. In fact, it has something to be proud of.

The "Old" Officers Retire

Those of the city former administration who retired Wednesday can do so with a consciousness that all of them did good jobs and that they return to the sovereign people their commissions free from smut and stain.

In the past four years, Grenada has made substantial progress. It has preserved, if not improved its credit. Grenada has several more miles of the best and the cheapest pavement than it had four years ago, co-operating with the WPA. The retiring administration fostered the establishment of an industry that plays a major part in making Grenada the bright spot in the business map of North Mississippi. It fostered and helped build many hundreds of yards of splendid concrete-lined ditches, another WPA project. Necessary additions to the sewer and water lines have been made, and these additions, by and large, have been made with a view of serving not Grenada of today, but the Greater Grenada of tomorrow.

To the everlasting credit of the retiring administration, it should be added that the administration left none of its own "dead cats" for the new administration to bury. It even cleaned up, so far as the city itself was concerned, the vexing power question which it could just as easily have passed on to its successor. The cats it killed, it buried decently, if not to the satisfaction of all the citizens, some of whom did not like the officiating preacher, some of whom wanted another kind of casket, some of whom thought the grave was too shallow, etc.

By and large, boys, you did a good job.

"Sour Dough"

Next week, we propose to begin publication of a series of short articles by the old lady's sister, Mrs. William J. Glenn, who is now visiting in our home.

She will call her series of reminiscences "Sour Dough". They will deal with intimate recollections of comic and serious events which came to her attention, and in which she participated during ten years above the Artic Circle in Alaska, where she first went as a government teacher, where she afterwards married, and where she lived with her miner husband in their search for gold.

She has consented to reduce some of her experiences to writing so that our readers may share in this insight into life in the Artic.

And so, the Session Ends

The session of the state legislature ended Monday, though work actually ceased last week.

There is no use now in dragging up any dead cats, though there will be many a dead cat materialized as the new laws begin to operate.

The act result of this session are that the state expense for the ensuing biennium will be about 42 or 43 millions, or about 5 millions more than the all-time high of the White administration, and just about double hte expense of the Conner administration. In other words, the oppressed taxpayers of this poor state must cough up at least twice the amount they coughed up six years ago.

The pitiful and the hopeless picture that we reluctantly view is a picture of ever-mounting state expenses and one that does not even indicate any reduction ever.

Railroad trackage abandoned, oil mills reduced in number to one-half the former number, virgin timber cut, more land forfeited to the state - and an ever-growing tax bill. More taxes, less to obtain taxes from.

As we said in the beginning, we are not captious and critical about the new schemes. Time, the great tester, will show them up. We are, however, alarmed at the evermounting tax burden.

Is's Up to You, Willard

The recommendations which newly installed City Marshal Willard Odom made were accepted in toto by the new city administration insofar as the personnel of the police force was concerned.

Odom is the "sheriff" of Grenada. He is the chief law enforcement officer. He is responsible to the people of Grenada for proper and adequate policing of the city. The city council, we think, wisely appointed the men whom Odom recommended. This was the right step. The city council did not handicap him by forcing men upon him. It wisely wanted him to have men of his choice, and appointed men whom Odom approved and recommended.

It is up to you, Willard, and we are with you. Go to it.

Tom Meek has been going around like a lost soul this week, while Ben Adams and Banker Patty are down disporting themselves at the bankers' convention at the Beuna Vista. The tales they could tell, if they would!

Brother Gaston from Derma, who has the questionable distinction of "raising" Ed Underwood, is visiting in the Underwood home, getting back some of those good "eatments" he used to feed Ed.

No casualties, other than those due to inebriation, were reported from 51 South Saturday night.

"Say, Bill, I notice you railroad men seem to know a lot about farming. How come?"

"Well, it's this way, Joe. In railroading we've got to understand the other fellow's business to give him the service he needs.

"Farm products are a big part of our business. Take cotton, for instance. The Illinois Central hauls more cotton than any other railroad in the world. Naturally, we learn all we can about it. The same is true of live stock, grain, vegetables, fruit and other things you farmers send to market. The more we know about them the better we can serve you."

There is no substitute for experience. The Illinois Central is long experienced in meeting the needs of shippers. This makes for good service.

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

In the year of 1931, there were 127 smiling or crying boys and girls who entered the first grade. Their teachers were Miss Mary Pierce and Miss Mary Ann Nance.

As this group passed through the first and second grades, they entered the Elementary School in the third grade. This was in the year of 1933. Of the 70 students who were in the third grade, only 55 of this group began together. The teachers were Mrs H. O. Thompson and Miss Necie Pope.

In the year of 1936, this group entered the sixth grade. Of the 77 students in the sixth grade, only 44 of this group started out together. The teachers were Miss Ruth Currie and Miss Mary Phillips.

Finally the glorious day came in the year of 1938 when this group graduated from Junior High. The number graduated was 71. Their faithful teachers, who taught this group for the two years they were in Junior High, were Mr. M. M. Mullendore, Miss Virginia Clements, Mrs. Sam Stanley Jr., Miss Mary Boswell, Miss Addie H. Barrow, Miss Fay Jordan, and Mr. Amos Slaten.

Today there are 76 freshmen in high school. This is one of the largest classes in high school.

GIRL OF THE WEEK

Among the highest in citizenship and schoolwork of Grenada High stands Lucy Moss. One need not say that she has been among the leaders of her classmates since they started nine years ago. Lucy, always dependable, represented the school in Latin I at the Field Meet this year and won tenth place in the State. In the IQ Tests given all Freshmen and new students, she rated remarkably high. In the Dramatic Club she is one of the most important members. She is also a member of the Girl Reserves.

Lucy has not only her outstanding ability in scholastic events, but her social popularity too. She is very popular among the students of Grenada High, especially to the extent that recently she has been known to keep company with a boy who drives a red truck. Now, Lucy, being a rather shy person when it comes to her love affairs, will probably call all this scandal. Nevertheless, the fact remains.

Lucy has recenty acquired the nickname "Hoss", which she simply detests. No one knows whence it came, but its probably from the rhyme with Moss. Lucy deems this name "really unladylike", but she is good-natured and has a keen sense of humor.

Among all of her good friends, Marguerite Stanley seems to have been the best ever since we can remember. Everywhere one is, the other one is too. Lucy is really a most interesting and welcome person because of her fine personality and her friendliness and respect toward everyone. In fact, everyone thinks she has a great future. Ask W. A. W.!

Seriously though, Lucy Moss is one girl of whom Grenada High can well be proud. She has served well, as her many honors show, and Grenada High now honors her. To her goal, we extend wishes for the best.

—Rogers Pleasants

CHAPEL PROGRAM

The chapel program began with two songs: "Holy, Holy, Holy" and "Home On the Range". Dick Rule read the Scripture, Psalm 119: 9-16. Following the Scripture, Brother Thrower prayed. Dr. Horton, the visiting preacher of the Methodist Church, gave a talk on the difference between success and luck. The student body of Grenada High enjoyed his talk very much.

—Mildred Pate

Ernestine McNulty seems to have recently acquired the nickname "Spit". Wonder who gave it to her and why.

Dot Talbert's getting good. Who is it, Oliver or that Jackson boy?

BOY OF THE WEEK

One boy who is held in the highest esteem by his classmates and teachers, as well as by all Grenada High, is Ralph Blaylock. From the first day he arrived, he has had a smile on his face and a good word for everybody.

Among his many fine accomplishments, one of the highest is his good-natured sense of humor. Ralph, better known as "Tubby", has one of the sunniest personalities I have ever known. "Tubby's" personality gives one an atmosphere of good humor and determination.

Then too, his grades rank among the highest in his class. He has climbed rapidly upward and ranked very high among contestants eligible for field meet, yet there is not a trace of conceit or self-pride about him. He has been to Grenada High only one year; but when he came, a real addition had been made. He is a freshman, to be sure, but he is a freshman that will be missed a senior.

In my opinion, he is not only a boy of the week, not only the boy of the year, but the boy of a lifetime. So, here's wishing "Tubby" Blaylock the most of success.

—Rogers Pleasants

MR. RUNDLE

Mr. Rundle is a very kindly man.
He pats you with a friendly hand.
A minute of what you think is scolding,
Of you into a worthwhile man he is molding.

His friendly smile, his heavy brow,
His broad shoulders tell you he has been behind a plow.
He was once a boy like me and you,
He had much homework to do.

He knows his poetry better'n good.
He would learn a friendly thought
If it were under a car hood.
If you don't like Mr. Rundle,
Your head is nothing but an empty funnel.

FIELD MEET

We certainly are proud of our freshmen who went to Field Meet.

Maxine Tilghman, algebra, first in district; third in state. Good work, Maxine!

Lucy Moss (better known as Hoss), Latin I, second in district; tenth in state.

Lillian York, English, 8th in district.

Bennie Moore, General Science, third in district.

Marguerite Stanley, Expression, third in district.

There hasn't been much said about our Freshmen in the Glee Club, although we sing like larks. Getting second place is not so bad and these freshmen helped: Betty Esther Edwards, Marguerite Stanley, Ruth Townes, Estelle Bailey, Mary Elizabeth Horton, Syble Roane, and Byrd Trussell.

SPRING

When the violets bloom,
When the doves do croon,
When the circus comes to town,
When the flowers blossom,
And we have trouble with the possum,
Then it is spring.

When the butterflies come,
And the locusts hum,
The song of the cicada,
When the children
Seem to be the laziest
Then it is spring.

—Frances Kincaid

MY DOG

(Talent, if we ever saw it.)

My dog is large.
And brown and pretty,
If she sees a cat
It is a pity.

She jumps and howls
And all night growls;
But when it thunders,
She goes into a plunder.

She is smart and bright,
And sleeps all night;
Big about dawn arrives,
She always attacks my bee hives.

My dog can also bite,
And when she does, she is a sight.
She bites only your legs,
And thinks they're just wooden pegs.

—Lynn Rose

DRAMATIC CLUB PICNIC

Following the custom of every year, the Dramatic Club held its picnic Wednesday afternoon, May 8, after school at the home of Lucy Moss. They had fried chicken cooked out of doors by the Dramatic Club), weiners, rolls, cake and drinks. They all looked forward to it and declared that it was the best picnic ever held.

—Marguerite Stanley

Dick Rule is really as changeable as the weather. He seems to be concentrating on several points: Charleston and Cherry St., for instance.

THE PANGS OF HUNGER

(The members of the Latin class who attended the Banquet so thoroughly enjoyed Rogers Pleasants speech "The Pangs of Hunger" that, for the benefit of the rest of the high school, it is now printed in the Bulldog.)

Friends, Romans, and Country People, right now, I am extremely interested in the loan of your ears. I have been asked to be here and address you after Effie Mae Frazier and Frances Herring have so kindly wailed over you.

Dear friends we, are gathered here given away by those little "stellas", striving and waiting to make hay of that rich old Roman food. Many of us seem to be going to "Eat, drink and be merry, for tomorrow we may be dead". This species of eaters, as Jackie Lane well knows, are called Epicureans.

Fine countrymen, we do not seem to feel at all the patriotism of great Caesar. All we feel is the pangs of hunger, which are, quite at the present, giving our empty bread baskets a victorious licking. One might quote someone as "having already digested her food and fast waiting to eat it". With no special reference to Caroline Hallam.

Fine Romans, patricians, Cottons, for we are all equals on an occasion such as much, the spirit of our ancient forefathers lives on before us. They ate, drank, and were merry. We are told that on the eve of Caesar's death certain members of this Latin Class were heavy with beverages; not that they loved Caesar less, but that they loved the beverages more.

Kind friends, you have borne with me through this hour of hunger and thirst, you have seen me, as well as our standing agent, Miss Lucille Pierce, shake with the need of the Roman "staff of life", a regular Patrina of old. In the name of our worn out stomachs we do demand that food be served.

But before we eat, drink, and are merry, I want to express my utmost desire that tomorrow we won't be "in the coffin, there with Caesar".

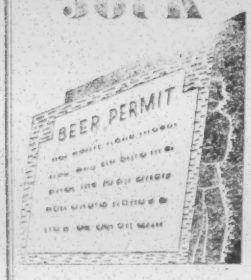
What Is A "JOINT"?



The word "joint" or "joint" means "to duck or elude by dodging, or a ducking movement."

This word has been used in the advertisements by this committee because there are a few scattered retail beer outlets which permit illegal practices of anti-social abuses to hide behind the respectability of a legal beer permit.

This committee's "Clean-up or Close-up" program is directed at such "joint joints" because they attempt to "duck or elude" the law and try to hide their illegal practices behind the legal sale of beer.

Using two forceful weapons—(1) revocation of the beer permit and shutting off the beer supply—this committee marches forward in its Clean-up or Close-up drive with a total of 42 such actions to its credit during the past ten months.

You are urged to support this self-regulatory program conducted by the beer industry in Mississippi by patronizing only retail beer outlets which are conducted in accord with the law and public sentiment in your community.

"I know Electricity is Cheap . . .
—BECAUSE the value of food saved by electric refrigeration alone more than equals the amount of the bill each month, without mentioning lights, cooking, cleaning, ironing, fans, radio and many other uses each day. Electricity is not a luxury but a necessity in the modern home."
—Says McComb (Miss.) Home-manager*

"A Necessity In the Modern Home"
Every home-manager realizes that modern electrical servants work untiringly, day and night, at multiplied tasks—and at a cost that makes them the smallest item on the average budget. No longer can such service be called a luxury—it is "a necessity in the modern home" and a money-saving necessity, at that! Know a new freedom, enjoy comfort, convenience, pleasure and Better Living—Modernize your home electrically, now!

Electric Cookery Is Cheap....
For full-flavored foods—cooked with SPEED—there's nothing quite so good as an electric range. You'll like lots of other things about modern electric cookery, too, besides its FAST, flavorful cooking. You'll have more free time and you'll find it CHEAP as electric light—so cheap, in fact, that you can cook electrically an entire day for LESS THAN THE COST OF ONE LOAF OF BREAD.

SUB DEBS ENTERTAIN WINONA SUB DEBS

On Friday evening the Grenada Sub Debs were hostess to the Sub Debs of Winona.

For this occasion the reception rooms, including the dining room and sun porch, were decorated most charmingly with roses; iris and potted plants.

The hostess served canapes, homemade cheese straws and iced coca colas. After this pleasant reception of guests the Grenada girls acting as hostesses, escorted their guests to the different homes for supper and to dress for the dance.

While in Jackson, we saw our old friend, Ed Whitehead, who is not as interesting as he used to be before the Hatch Bill put a ball and chain on his political talkings.

In our own Hit Parade, including the he men of Grenada, we place the name of Thomas E. Neely among the first fifteen.

Should War Come to Grenada

(A Phantasy)

Let us draw on our imagination a bit and seek to visualize Grenada should it be visited by the hordes that are now devastating Belgian, Norwegean, Dutch and Polish cities!

There would be no postal communication for the trains would be used, if at all, for the transportation of troops and munitions. No letters, no newspapers.

The power lines would be destroyed and the auxiliary plant at the railroad blown up. No lights, no water, no ice cubes, no radio, no motors turning no electric stoves in operation. For drinking water our people would have to drink from the unsanitary river. For illumination we would have to revert to pine knots for even the supply of kerosene would quickly be exhausted or commandered for the army. With water supply gone, there would be no sanitary sewage disposal. For ice, we would have to wait until winter. For fuel, we would have to tote twigs and branches from the near-by forests. There would be no trucks or wagons to haul wood, for both trucks and workstock would have been taken by the armies. With power and gasoline gone, and no water mills, even corn bread could not be had. Bread, if available at all, would have to be of hominy, grains of corn boiled with wood ashes.

All able bodied men would be at the front. Nobody would be here but the children, the women and the aged men. The court house would be in ruins and the precious records therein scattered and burned by bombs and shell fire.

There would be no civil government. No sheriff and no city marshal. Courts, other than military courts, would vanish. Looting, robbery, rape and rapine, perpetrated by the human scavangers that always await an opportunity, would be rife. Nobody and nothing would be safe. Law, order, civilization itself would abdicate.

Our streets would be littered with accumulated rubbish. Our beautifull trees would be skeletonized reminders of the beautiful yesterday. Filth and dirt would accumulate, and Disease and Pestilence, their twin sisters, would not be far behind.

Churches would be closed, many in ruins. Trade would stop. The wheels of all industry would cease their revolutions. There would be no money, nor need for money for there would be nothing to buy. Small hoards of food, be they only scraps of bread and dusts of meal, would be more valuable than the choicest china or the costliest of linen.

Scum would accumulate in the pool in the square, and grass, unwatered and untended, would wither and scorch. Hedges, once the pride of our homes and gardens, would quickly become ugly and dishevelled.

There would be no cows and therefore no milk. Rickets and other diseases due to malnutrition would develop, as would typhus, cholera and other horrible ailments. Chilredn and old people would die like flies.

Schools would close. Teachers would disperse. Pupils of military age would be in the army. There would be no open theaters. No swimming pools. No baseball games.

Fires started by incindiary bombs would travel their paths of ruin until they literally burned themselves out, for there is no water, no fire department, no chemicals. Gaunt brick walls, roofless and desolate, marked the place where our bustling square once was.

Hungry dogs, drawn to the scene, starving cats gaunt and vicious, roaming the streets. Buzzards hopping about the alleys, gorging themselves on the putrid fruits of war. Hospitals filled with shrieking victims and no medicine. Operations with no anesthetics, no lights, and none of the modern surgical equipage.

Families scattered. Lost children. Hungry and homeless hordes. Pestilence. Disease. Clogged sewers. Impure water.

No news but ill-told rumors. No tidings from loved ones. Babies crying for milk. Wrecked homes. Blasted bridges.

Can not happen in and to Grenada, you say? These things and worse are happening to towns in Europe.

CARD OF THANKS

Words are indeed inadequate for us to express our deep and lasting appreciation to the nurses at the hospital and to the faithful physicians, all of whom did everything humanly possible for our dear wife and mother during her last illness. The words of sympathy, the beautiful floral offerings and other evidences of love and friendship to us, are also appreciated beyond our power to express. May God bless each and every one of you.

Sincerely,
J. E. Shaw and Children

Chrysler Deliveries Set New Records

April set two new records for retail deliveries of Chrysler cars, according to J. H. Neely of Grenada Auto Co. It was the largest month in retail deliveries in the history of the Chrysler Sales Division's six and eight-cylinder car business, a period dating back to the beginning of the 1929 model year.

Furthermore, retail deliveries of Chryslers in the week ended April 27 were by a considerable margin the largest of any single week in the history of the six and eight-cylinder lines. Deliveries showed an increase of 137.7 percent over the corresponding week of April, 1939, and 56 percent over the preceding week, which in itself had been a very large one.

Plymouth deliveries by Chrysler dealers also showed a heavy advance, 28.3 percent over the corresponding week of 1939 and 12.6 percent over the preceding week.

My Column

Whyt Whitaker, Jr.

Poppy Day will be observed in Grenada and throughout the Nation on May 25th, the Saturday before Memorial Day. On that day all Americans will be asked to wear little red memorial poppies in tribute to the World War dead, and to aid the living victims of the war.

***

The note that follows created quite a bit of excitement, and rather embarrassed the writer. Miss Miriam Boone, and the receiver, John Keeton, Jr., when it was read aloud by "Hot Shot" Dogan, to the entire attendance at the Charleston-Grenada baseball game: "Darling, In the Spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to the thoughts of love. Take a tip and make up! I love You? (no fooling)."

***

At this writing I want to extend my sincere congratulations to each and every graduate of G. H. S. class of '40. You will ever be proud that you have your diploma. My best wishes will follow you wherever you go.

***

Fuehrer fairy, quite contrary,
How does your garden grow?
With nauseous smells, and ten-inch shells,
And dead men all in a row.

—Der Gag Bag

***

The Americans are coming . . . to their senses! We'll stay neutral. Sell them all the munition they can buy. Under these terms: one half cash and the other half in a minute.

***

Virgil Barnes and Jones Allison made a flying trip up to Scoby Sunday night. They returned in the best of spirits, so they say.

***

Charlie Gaston, one of Cap Oliver's efficient grocerymen, surely has a girl that makes one envy him. Miss Sally Mary McCalop.

***

We have often wondered why some people keep on saying that war is certain for the United States. And we have noticed that the ones that do most of the fighting talk are too old to fight, the army wouldn't have them if they begged for enlistment.

***

You don't hear World War Veterans who know the horror, despair, and destruction of it boosting the idea. Neither do you hear the young men, who will have to go through the hell of it, throwing war logs on the fire.

***

Wednesday night, May 15th a new city administration went in office. With it goes the sincere hope of the citizenship of Grenada that they will "stay put" on what they say, and believe. We can't picture these gentlemen as the wishy-washy type, and with that belief in mind, anticipate a successful administration.

***

Now that the legislature has adjourned Fred Sullens won't have anything to raise hell about. Come on folks, let's get someone to run against Bilbo, Fred is in torment when he has no one to rip up and down the back.

***

The local chapter of the Red Cross has been soliciting funds to feed the hungry, sick and helpless people of the invaded countries of Belgium, Holland, and Luxembourg. If the money raisers misses you, mail, or send your contribution, to Henry Ray, Jr.

***

Picture yourself in those poor wretches shoes. Wouldn't you want and need assistance? Well then, give some contribution, large or small.

***

The word "jouk" or "jook" means: "to duck, or elude by ducking, or a ducking movement." Brother Webster taught us something new. We thought it was a place where licker was bootlegged, but guess we were wrong.

***

C. W. Thompson surely does have tough luck, another guy is after that good looking girl of his. We thought that fellow from Monroe, La., was enough for him to stand at one time.

***

Those "Free Staters" must have used some of the newly invented German gas in the seventh inning on the Grenada boys Tuesday afternoon. You know, it is suppose to paralize the muscles, and it looked like something similar happened to them.

***

Now that Hitler has taken most of Holland, we wonder if he would allow them to go out in the middle of the Atlantic and reclaim them a permanent home.

***

Planes, planes, and more planes are a vital element in modern warfare, as has been demonstrated by the Germans.

***

The Germans have approximately 14,000 war planes. The United States the small sum of 2,500 first raters—a ratio of 4 to 1.

***

Poppies are blossoming in all their glory in Holland, at least they were a week ago.

***

The army of Holland at the beginning of the war was 280,000 strong. In five days 90,000 were killed. About 32 percent casulties.

***

The State Department has warned all American citizens in Europe to come back home. If they don't heed the call, let them take their medicine.

***

If they are hell bent and determined to adventure around over there, this government shouldn't assume any responsibility whatsoever for their safety.

***

Americans frolicking around in the war zone during the last war caused our entrance into the great and glorious crusade to save the world for democracy?

***

Incidentally, as you know, we played heck preserving democracy in Europe.

***

Come to think about it, let's save America for democracy. It's easier and more profitable.

***

As we go to press Little Tommie Rose is about to go under the knife, having his appendix removed. We bet he will have a big time with the nurses.

***

Kent's Quick Kure Dandruff Medicine must be the stuff, as the testimony of Louis Dubard, Jr., proves Louis bought a bottle of this recently invented fluid, and applied it to his scalp, which rid him of the itchy feeling almost immediately. Since it worked so splendidly he decided to use it on a flea infested dog, the experiment was successful. (poor fleas.) Astounded by the marvelous affects of this mixture, half reluctant he applied it to a lousy horse. Again the unbelievable came to pass. (poor lice.)

***

If you have dandruff try "Kent's Quick Kure", it's guaranteed.

Plant food, plant forage. Things are happening so swiftly that no one knows but that food will be scarce by winter. It is time now to plant food.

JOHN KEETON, JR., HONORED

John T. Keeton, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Keeton received notice this week that he has been selected as a member of the all State Band to accompany the Know Mississippi Better Train as trombone player when they tour America this summer.

He has a splendid record as first chair in trombone in Grenada High School Band. For three years a member of the All State Band and this past year the judges at Band Clinc held at Ole Miss, selected John to go to Biloxi as a member of the All State Band to play for the State Teachers Association

John's friends certainly are proud of the record he has made and we add our congratulations.

NEW APARTMENT BUILDING

Ground was broken this week preliminary to the construction of two-apartment one-story brick buildings on the Planters Hotel old site on the corner of Depot and Mound Streets.

These buildings are being erected for the owner, Mr. Vince Barranco, by Mr. H. M. Day, contractor. They will be of substantial brick construction and up to date in every respect.

COMBINED PRAYER MEETING

The Christian people of Grenada, or at least many of them, assembled at the Presbyterian Church Wednesday evening in a united prayer meeting, in which the sincere prayers of the people were offered up to Almighty for a speedy and a just peace. Rev. T. B. Thrower, Rev. C. A. Pharr and Rev. G. E. Wiley spoke. It is said that the greatest congregation ever assembled in Grenada participated in this meeting.

NEW CLERK AT FATHERREE DRUG CO.

Mr. Earl Gillon, of Gore Springs, is now employed at the Fatherree Drug Co. He is the son of Mr. Sam Gillon of the fine Gore Springs community. Incidently, they are drilling for "black gold" on his father's plantation, and if the hole is wet, we'll bet that Jeff will have to find another soda jerker.

Circle No. 3 met in the home of Mrs. Carrie Allison. Mrs. Welker led the devotional and Mrs. Griffis taught the lesson based on the book "Methodist United for Action."

Circle No. 4 met in the home of Mrs. Clarence Oliver. Mrs. Waterman led the devotional and Mrs. Jobe taught the lesson based on "Methodist United for Action."
